

New Castle Man Arrested on Drug Charges

New Castle – A 25 year old New Castle man has been charged with dealing drugs after agents from the Division of Alcohol and Tobacco Enforcement witnessed what appeared to be a drug transaction at an area WaWa.

On February 7, 2014, a plainclothes Division of Alcohol and Tobacco Enforcement (DATE) Agent was standing outside of the WaWa located at 4000 N. DuPont Highway in New Castle and witnessed what appeared to be a hand to hand drug transaction near the fuel pumps. Other DATE agents that were in the area watched for the suspected dealer as he left the area on foot. The suspect, Kimjuana D. Jervey, was stopped and arrested without incident after he left the parking lot. He is accused of selling a baggie containing 3.8 grams of marijuana to another individual.

Jervey was charged with Drug Dealing and was arraigned at Justice of the Peace Court #20. He was later released on a $5,000 unsecured bond.
